TITLE I PARENT INVOLVEMENT

GUIDELINES

Parent involvement activities developed at school will include opportunities for:

- Volunteering
- Parent education
- Home support for child's education
- Parent participation in school decision-making

The school system will provide opportunities for professional development and resources for staff and parents/community regarding effective parent involvement practices.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Parents

It is the responsibility of the parent to:

- Actively communicate with the staff.
- Be aware of the rules and regulations of the school.
- Take an active role in the child's education by reinforcing, at home, the skills and knowledge the student has learned in school.

2. Staff

It is the responsibility of the staff to:

- Develop and implement a school plan for parent involvement.
- Promote and encourage parent involvement activities.
- Effectively and actively communicate with all parents about skills, knowledge, and attributes students are learning in school suggestions for reinforcements.
- Send information to parents of Title I children in a format and to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand.

3. Community

Community members who volunteer in the school have the responsibility to:

- Be aware of rules and regulations of the school.
- Utilize opportunities for participation in school activities.

“Striving for Excellence with Integrity and Community Values”

4. Administration

It is the responsibility of the administration to:

- Facilitate and implement the Title I parent involvement policy and plan.
- Provide training and space for parent involvement activities.
- Provide resources to support successful parent involvement practices.
- Provide in service education to the staff regarding the value and use of contributions of parents and how to communicate with and work with parents as equal partners.
- Send information to the parents of Title I children in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand.
